Thank you for taking the time to contact me.

This is an automatically generated reply so that you know your email has arrived.

As my office receives significant volumes of reference material and correspondence, it is very difficult for me to personally respond to all communications on an individual basis. Notwithstanding these demands, I endeavour to ensure that I am kept informed on all important matters.

If the matter is not urgent, please ensure that your email contains your full name, residential address and contact phone number, where possible. If these details are not provided, I will note your views, but am unable to respond to your email. If your matter is urgent, please contact my office on (07) 4927 2003.

Please note that given the amount of correspondence received, I am only able to reply to those residing in Queensland. If you reside in another State or Territory, it is important you contact your local Member or Senator.

If you are writing to me regarding a matter before a Senate Committee, please direct your correspondence to the appropriate Committee Secretariat, addressing all relevant terms of reference. More information can be found here:
